Ten steps how to set up a company in Bremen

Application of residence permit for Managing Directors
To start the process of immigration for a residence permit of the managing director in Bremen, an interview with the Bremen Chamber of Commerce has to be arranged. It is the Bremen Chamber of Commerce that decides about the feasibility of your business in Bremen. For this purpose, you have to complete a questionnaire and provide personal details and about your future business which is required by the Bremen Immigration Authority. Subsequently, the Bremen Immigration Authority shall submit a statement of your business establishment to the relevant German Embassy in Turkey.

The following documents have to be presented:

Documents about your business:
- business plan
- references from business partners
- Proof of capital, i.e. bank statement from house bank
- company profile of mother company
- price-lists/samples/catalogues/brochures
- business objective of the company
- Articles of association (if applicable) with salary information, if available
- Extract from the commercial register, if available
- Proof of business registration, if available

Documents about your personal qualifications:
- completely filled-in application form for a residence permit
- copy of passport
- resume/curriculum vitae
- education/qualification documents/certificates (translated and legalised in German)
- certificate of language skills
- references about professional experiences
- If applicable, proof of health insurance coverage (for the Bremen Immigration Authority)

All appointments and preparations are organised by Bremeninvest.

Company formation and official registration
The personal presence of the nominated Managing Director of the GmbH based in Bremen is inevitable. In case the company has a shareholder besides the Managing Director who in person cannot be present upon notarization, a written statement (power of attorney) has to be issued that all his rights will be represented by the Managing Director.

- Notary Public for company formation
  German commercial law allows for a considerable variety of legal form for commercial enterprise. These range from the public company and the private company to the individual trader and include several forms of partnership. Foreign investors can choose any type of legal form for their business. Together with our experts from Bremeninvest and with respect to your company activities, we help you to find the most suitable for your business project.

  The most chosen form for a foreign start-up company is the limited liability company 'GmbH'. The advantages of a GmbH is that the company is liable to the extent of its share capital. The minimum capital is €uro 25,000. Bremeninvest avails of legal experts, i.e. lawyer to provide you with consultancy services to all legal questions in connection with the company registration. The documents required depend on whether an individual or a legal entity is setting up the company. Depending on the form of company set up, please contact Bremeninvest to provide you with a list of documents needed.

- Office Location
  Within the WFB Economic Development, we have access to our internal property/real estate database available for rent. With the WTC World Trade Bremen at the Bremen airport, we can offer office space and exhibition facilities in a prime location with an international atmosphere and excellent service. Small office units are available with immediate effect.
  For an individual offer of office space, please let us have your info. Your inquiry will be submitted to the World Trade Center Bremen.

4. Return to home country

  During your personal visit to Bremen you have finally decided to choose Bremen as your ideal future business location. With the documents and information compiled in Bremen, i.e. rental contract for office space, roll of deeds, memorandum of association - you proceed to the German Embassy or Consulate to submit the application of residence permit for a managing director in Germany. Upon receipt of the 3-months preliminary residence permit you enter into Germany again to arrange the final procedures. For the afore mentioned process starting with the application for residence permit in your home country at the given German Embassy/Consulate until being granted the residence permit at Bremen may take 1 to 3 months. Due to contacts of Bremeninvest with public authorities and institutions involved the process at Bremen can be accelerated.

5. Entry into Germany for finalization of settlement process

  Being granted the 3-months preliminary electronic residence title you enter into Germany again to arrange the final procedures in Bremen. For the extension to a long-term 18 months residence permit you have to report to the Bremen Immigration Office. Within the 3-months validity of the preliminary residence permit, the visa applicant has to obtain

  - a private health insurance.

  Certificate of a health insurance is a necessity for Germany and the EU. You can obtain a certificate in your home country or conclude contract in Germany with a private health insurance. Upon request, we can recommend reputable insurance companies.

  - prove for permanent private residence address in Bremen through certificate available at the registration office of citizenship (BürgerServiceCenter), Pelzer Str. (city centre).
